

Wine has been part of civilized life for some seven thousand years. It is the only beverage that feeds the body, soul and spirit of man and at the same time stimulates the mind.

-Robert Mondavi

Fun Facts

- Dom Perignon, a Benedictine monk and cellar master of the Benedictine Abbey, is credited with inventing the Champagne process, and was incidentally blind. He said of his first sip, "Come quickly, I am tasting the stars"
- 500-600 to as many as over 1000 grapes to make a bottle of wine
- A productive lifetime of a vine? 30-35 years, although quality can remain well after
- "You could say one wine is like Dorothy in the Wizard of Oz while another is like the mature Judy Garland, or that a big voluptuous chardonnay is like Marilyn Monroe - round, bosomy - you can remember that chardonnay, ... If you say a wine is snappy and lively, like Robin Williams, that's very different than the Anthony Hopkins of wine - urbane, sophisticated, measured, considered." - Karen MacNeil

CELLAR #8, CALIFORNIA, deep berry and plum fruits	32

Pinot Noir (pee-noe Nawhr)

"It's a hard grape to grow. It's thin-skinned, temperamental, ripens early... pinot needs constant care and attention... in fact, it can only grow in these really specific, little tucked-away corners of the world... Only somebody who really takes the time to understand pinot's potential can then coax it into its fullest expression."
-Miles, from the movie Sideways
